

SOCIAL STUDIES LAB

The social research laboratory is fully equipped with physical and political maps of world, India and other countries, global, charts, models (functional and non-functional work) etc. encouraging environment of this resource center enhance the creativity of future teachers. It offers richly opportunities to develop students' sense of time and space. During Teaching practice students can teach at S.St. through Educational materials are available here.

